To the attention of the International League against Epilepsy,

The Capsis Hotel Rhodes & Convention Centre "Marika Capsis 2000" is the largest convention and business hotel in Greece and is located at the Ixia Area, which is the well-established business and conference area of the island of Rhodes since 1990.

The Capsis Hotel Rhodes & Convention Centre "Marika Capsis 2000" is reputable through years of experience and excellent performance and is accepted within the international convention trade, as one of the most successful venues for organizing and hosting very big and important conference events, especially in the field of business, medicine practice and pharmaceutical industry.

The Convention Centre "Marika Capsis 2000" started its operation in 2001 and combined with the meeting rooms of the Capsis Hotel Rhodes, the venue today offers the following:

- Total conference capacity for up to 8.000 delegates
- 100 meeting rooms of various sizes
- Largest plenary hall seats up to 3.400 persons
- Total exhibition space of up to 5.990 sq.m.
- Fully-equipped business centre and latest technology of audiovisual equipment and translation services
- 691 guestrooms & suites, 3 restaurants, 4 bars
- Ideally located 5 minutes drive from the Medieval City of Rhodes (world heritage monument protected by UNESCO) and 15 minutes from the "Diagoras" International Airport of Rhodes
- Members of the Hellenic Association of Professional Congress Organizers (HAPCO) and the International Congress & Convention Association (ICCA)

Since 2001, the island of Rhodes has become one of the leading convention areas in Europe and the Mediterranean region for the organization of large Medical and other Congresses and successfully competes with top European convention cities. Today, the Capsis Venue is well known all over the world for its ideal location, its professional facilities, its great conference capacities and its specialization in the successful organization of very large European and International, Medical, Pharmaceutical, Automobile and Information Technology conferences, incentives, congresses, conventions, meetings, seminars, workshops and exhibitions. The conference hotel has been praised in numerous occasions from local authorities, Greek and European press, international Congress Organizers and Medical and Pharmaceutical Companies for its long established experience in successfully organizing big business conference ventures. A sample list of events organized at the Capsis Venue is attached below.

We remain at your disposal for any additional information you may require and look forward to welcoming your congress and its participants to our venue and Rhodes.

Kind Regards,

Irini Varda-Capsis
